Dedicated To The Class Of

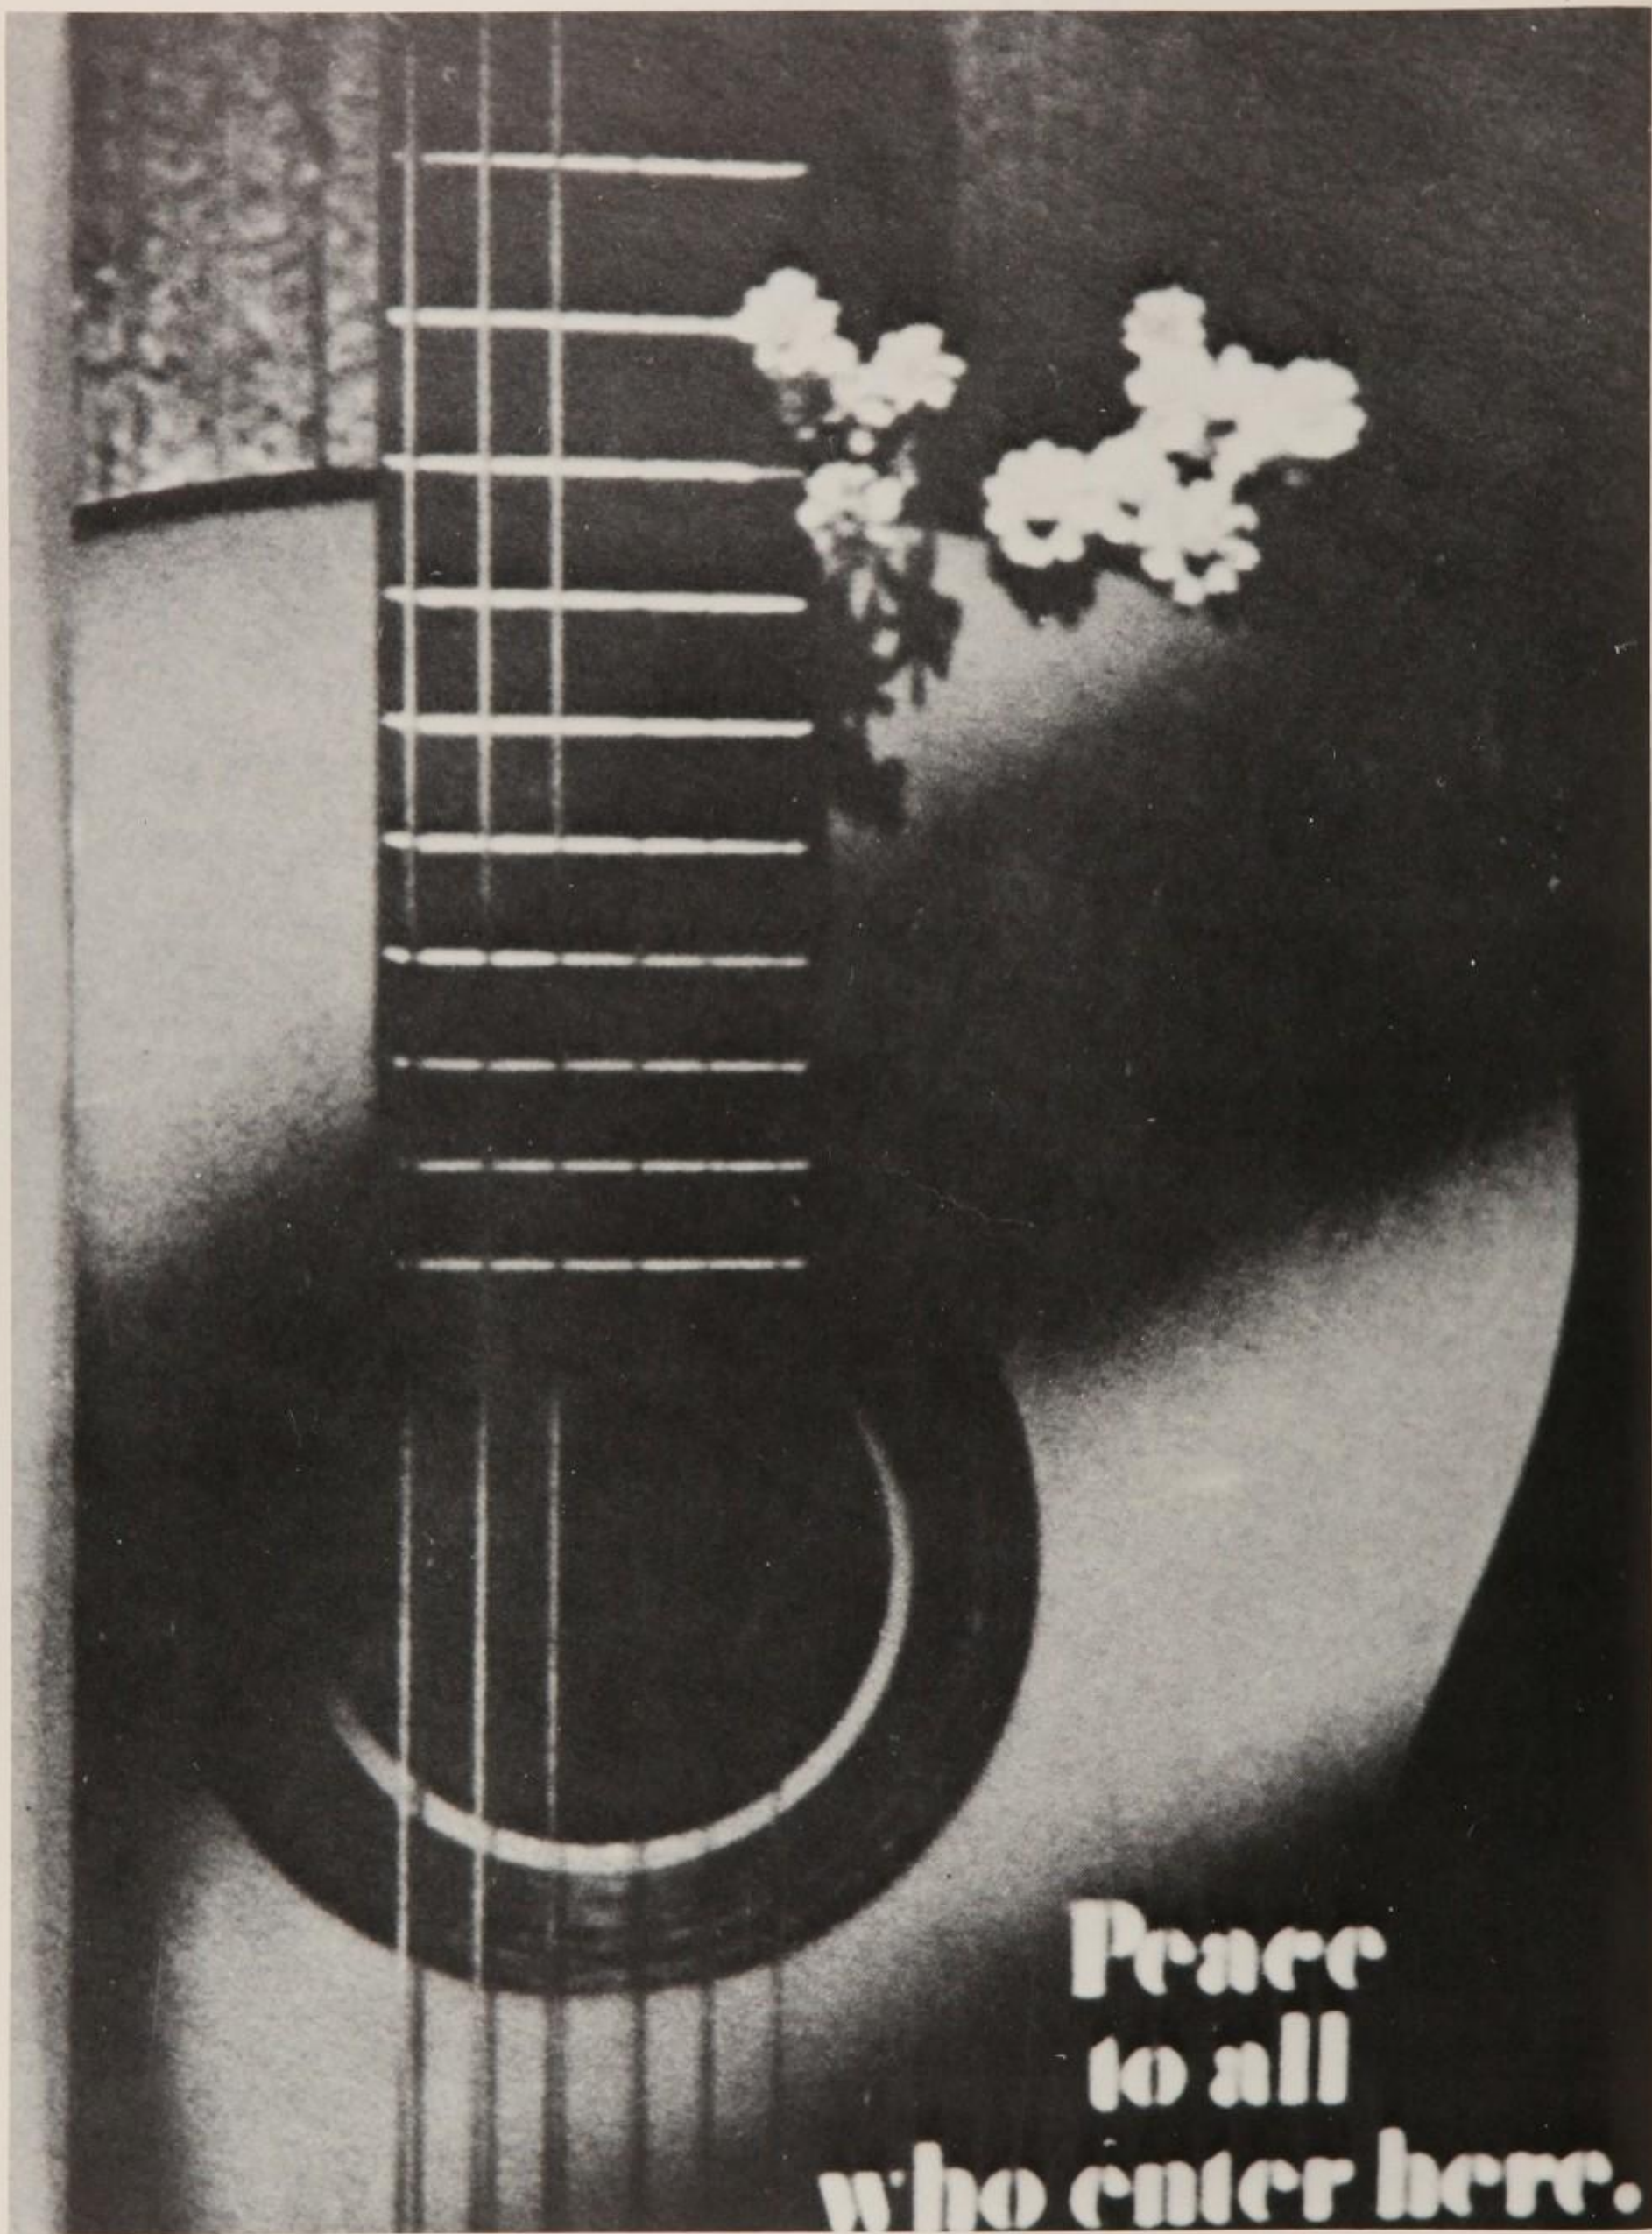

Editor's Message

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us . . ."

Charles Dickens wrote these words over 100 years ago about a period of time 150 years before that, and yet they can accurately describe our life here at R.H.S. The experiences we have here may not always be good and not always be bad, but they will be and we must accept them as such. Whether the team wins or loses, whether the test is passed or failed, whether we're late or early for class, whether the experiment succeeds or flops — it may be forgotten; it is the emotion that will never die. And so we, the 1973-74 Journalism class, shall present to you this emotion in our, the seniors, last picture show.

Lynn Bell, Editor

Imagine

One Perfect Rose

A single flow'r he sent me, since we met
All tenderly his messenger he chose;
Deephearted, pure with scented dew still wet —
One perfect rose.

I knew the language of the floweret:
"My fragile leaves," it said, "his heart enclose."
Love long has taken for his amulet
One perfect rose.

Why is it no one ever sent me yet
One perfect limousine, do you suppose?
Oh no, it's always just my luck to get
One perfect rose.

Monica Sturges, Chris Wilkerson, Barb Lees, Tom Higgins, Barb Gilmore, and Andy Martin wait for the Grand March, the highlight of the Prom.

Mike Kotula and Jan Charnovich enjoy the punch fountain.

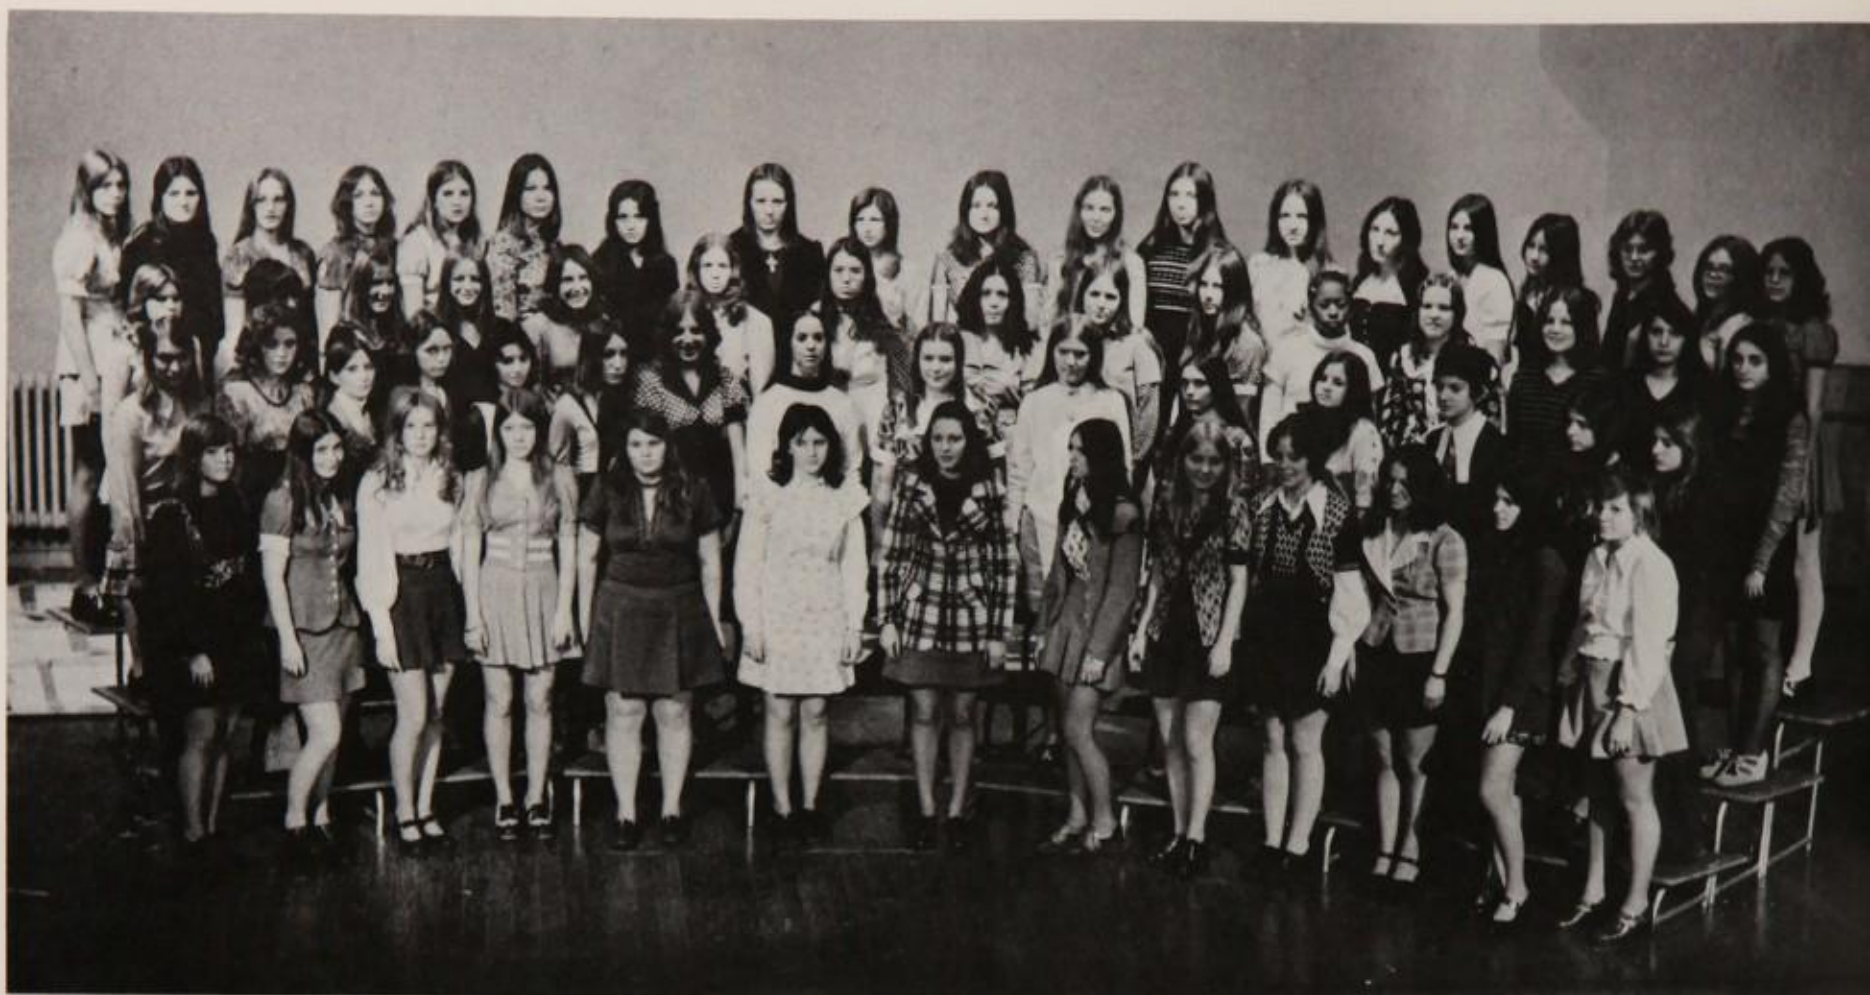

The 1973 Jr.-Sr. Prom, presented by the class of '74 took place on May 18, 1973, at Rostraver Gardens. The theme was Imagine, and everyone was asked to "imagine" one perfect rose. As the final sounds of Harombe echoed, all that was left was the memory and the brandy snifter given as a favor.

A view from the bridge shows the gazebo.

Everyone dances to the latest sounds of Harombe.

RINGGOLD HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

Faith, service, and unity,
We've learned these diligently;
You've taught us to live respectful lives;
Alma Mater, we sing of thee.

We'll uphold thy just and noble truths
Henceforth to eternity,
For, our dear old Alma Mater,
No other will surmount thee.

We of mighty Ringgold High
Pledge our loyalty,
We'll remain, as one, until the end
For our e'er true best friend.

Robert Mariani

Track

By the looks of Mr. Poad, the track team had better win.

This is no Olympic line-up, but it's our guys. (left to right) Bob Condie, John Metcalf, Gary Kles, John Stiehm.

John Metcalf hands the baton off to Dale Venturini in the 2 mile relay.

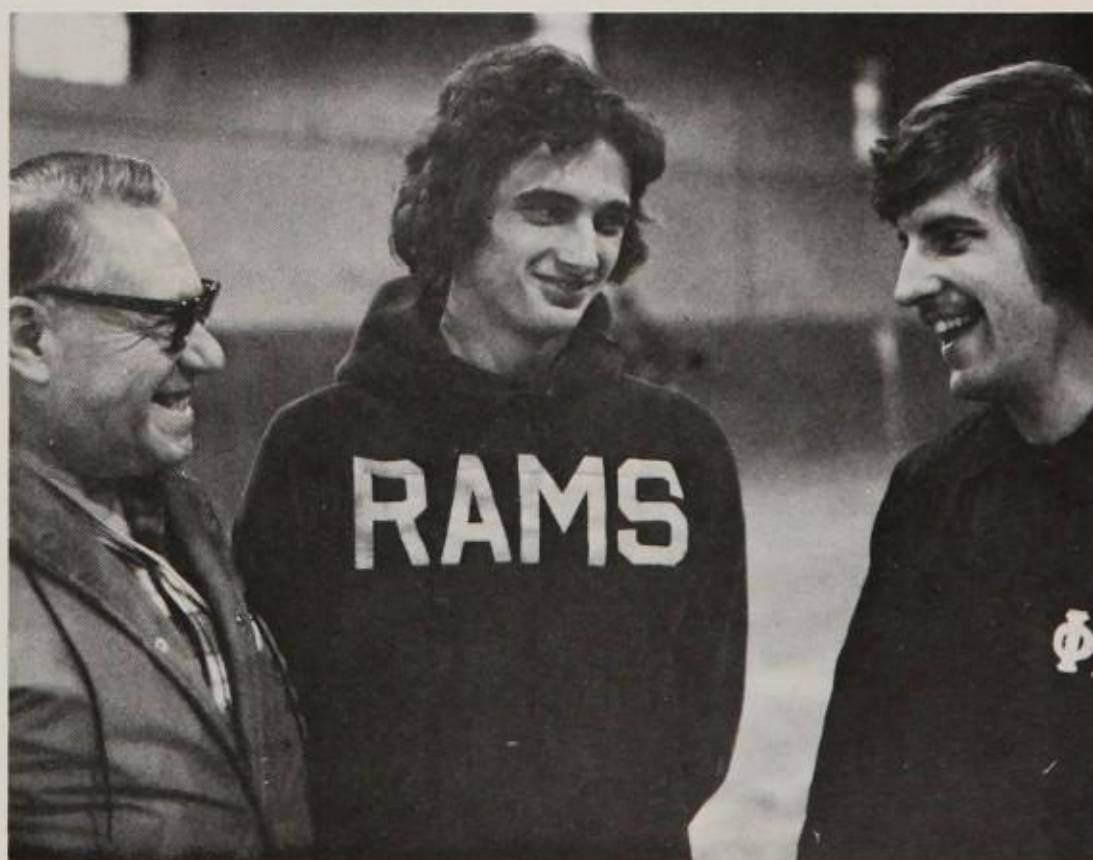

Dale Venturini jumps the hurdle.

Mel Boyd tries to beat his own record.

Lindsay Mastro puts the shot.

Coach Poad, Mel Boyd, and Mike Coulter seem to be satisfied with the results of the last event.

Scenes from the cutting

room floor

"OK. Try to find my contact, guys."

"Can I have the car tonight, Coach?"

"Doug Bartoe, do you really think that the news Ken Pemberton just broke to you was that bad?"

Mike Brantley practices his ballet.

The world's most attentive student lurks in Room 110.

The Color Guard presents our colors during a parade.

Cheryl Dugan climbs for the sky in gym class.

"I listen to the new sound of 13Q," says Debby Barbe.

Randy Daube tells Suzy Spirit, who doubles as Barb Wentzel, "I love you."

Terry Andrick and Abe Steed dig in at lunch time.

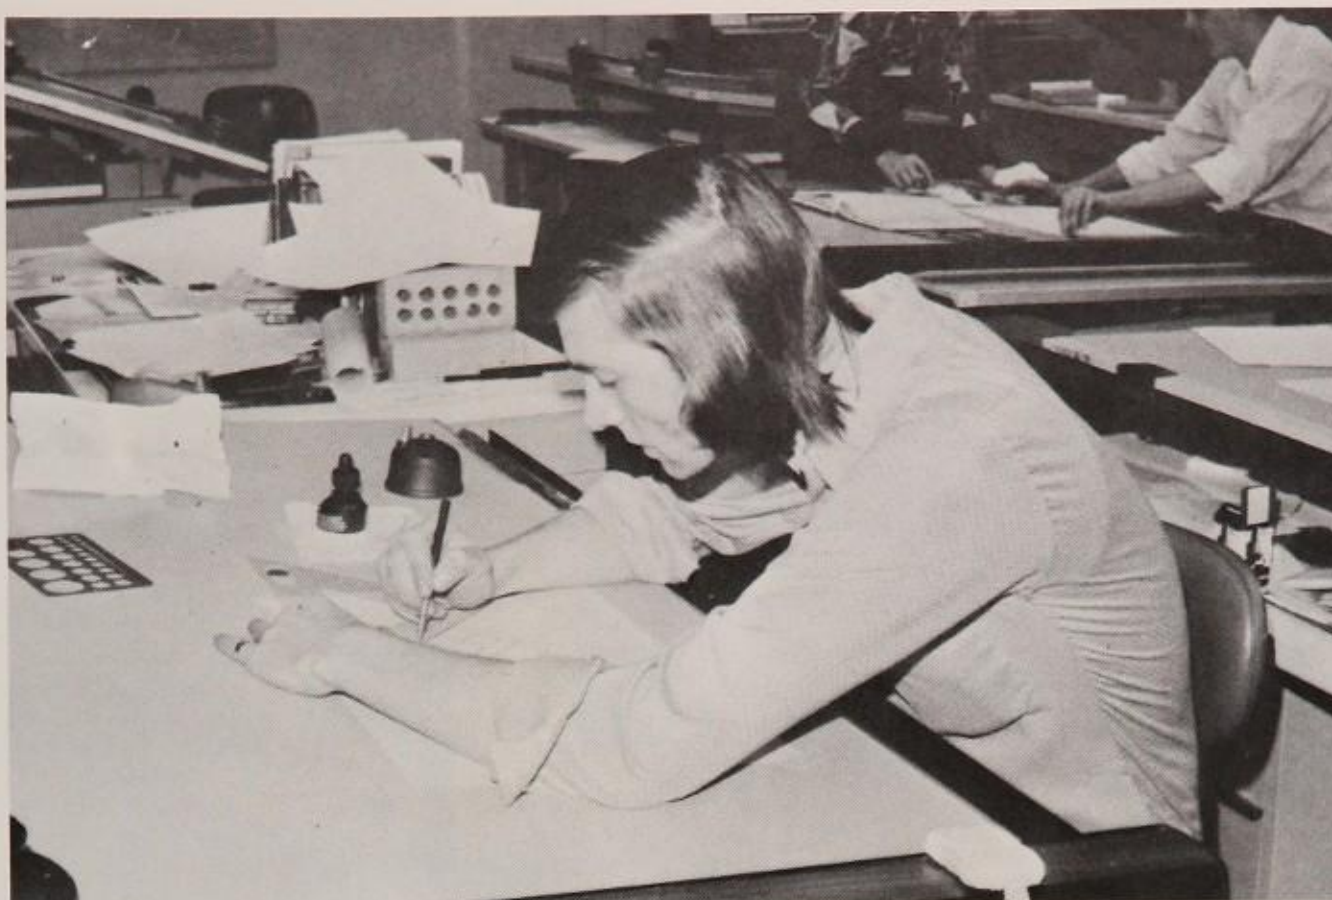

Hop-a-long Ruth Todd makes her way to class just a little late.

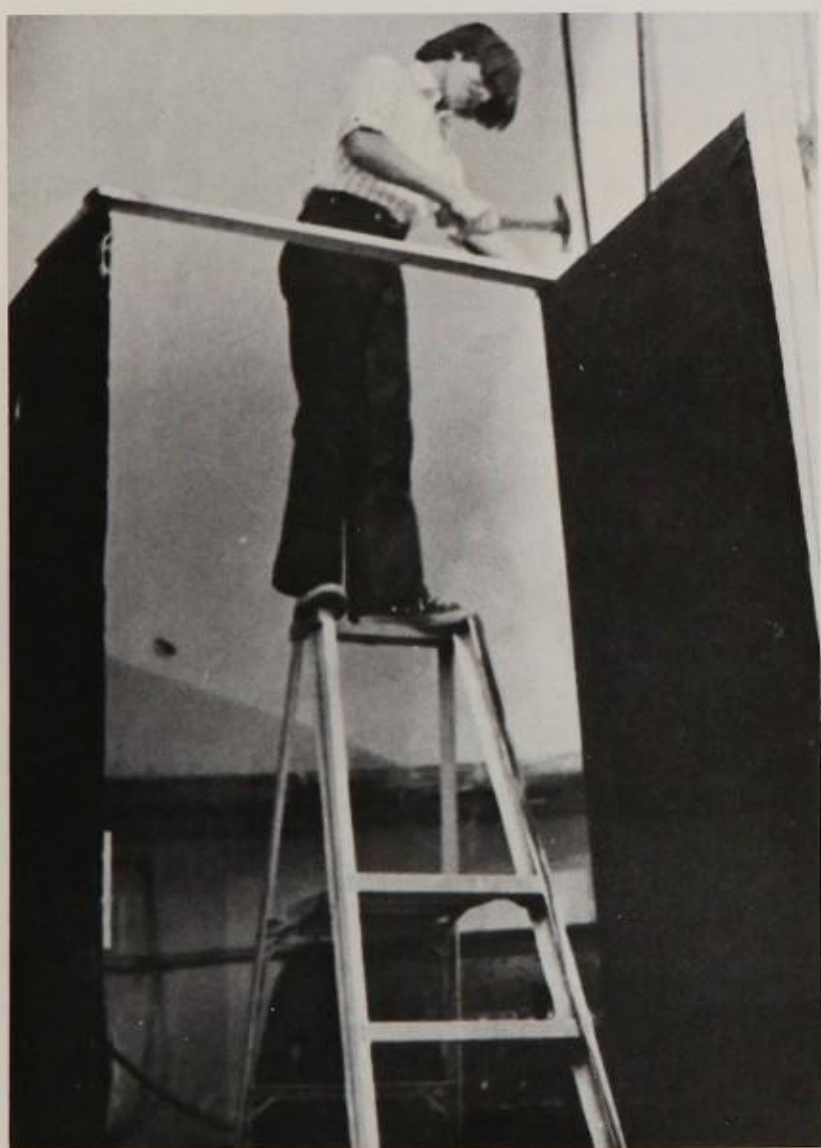

Jay Yohe becomes the old oak tree for the majorettes to tie a yellow ribbon around.

Dora Ianno and Linda Garrett pedal heartily during gym class.

Voc-tech student Jan Wallace knows that drafting is a meticulous job.

Eric Jones puts a finishing nail to the set for "West Side Story."

John Nelson demonstrates that the tennis racket is quicker than the camera lens.

Jay Zembo tries to look innocent during study hall.

Clark Southworth and Andy Martin practice hard in band.

POWER

Sally Watson seems to think an open mouth helps her volleyball game.

Jan Charnovich starts to daydream during class.

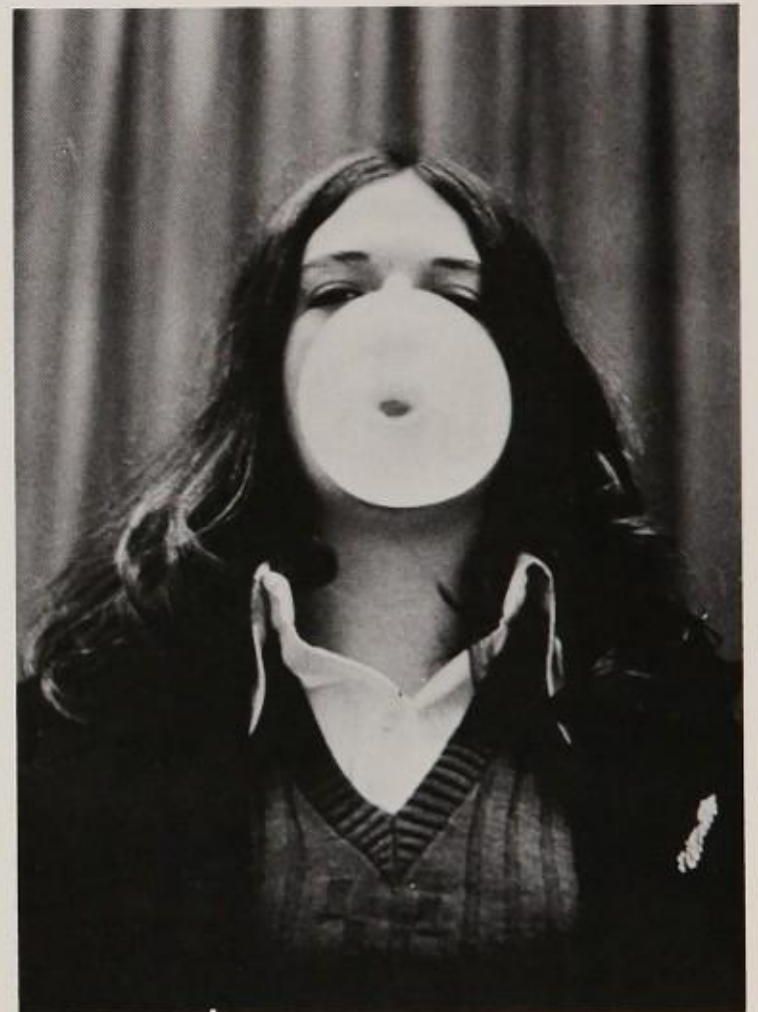

What's Cindy Nagy smirking about?

There's something over yonder.

Patty Stalmah and Lee Ann Sichi take a break after half-time.

Amy Rigby blows a prize winning bubble.

The ramp crew always seems to be hard at work.

Jeff Jones seems to have shrunk just a little.

Everyone seems to be going the wrong way, at least to Joan Owens.

Ron Mamie goes in for a shot during the senior boys-faculty basketball game.

Joyce McConnell tries for a strike in gym while her instructor Karen Grusofsky looks on.

Curtis Bright and Ron Russak often test their strength just being members of A.V. Crew.

Coach Abramski gives our team the "hi" sign during a game.

The girls' basketball team practices during mini-courses.

Bobbette Jamison finds something humorous about Patti Fitch and Debbie Schotting being number one.

The cheerleaders do a mount during a basketball game.

Sandy Luz Mejia Escobar, our foreign exchange student, stops outside the guidance office.

The colorguard presents the flags during a half-time show.

Mr. Woodward makes a great referee?

There seems to be a lot of spirit in the teacher's section during the faculty-senior boys basketball game.

The student section cheers after a Ringgold basket.

Filmed on location in Technicolor: It holds the red of our passion, the orange of our intensity, the yellow of our happiness, the green of our gentleness, the purple of our tenderness, the blue of our contentment, and the gold of our joy.

And so ends the Senior's "Our Last Picture Show." How was it rated? Each individual will have to judge for himself. The final frames have clicked off the screen and "The End" is here. Only memories will linger on.
